MANTRACKING

October 17-18, 2015

567 Goshen Road
Stanford, KY 40484

Course Description:

This course is designed to give you the best techniques using a logical, practical, and effective approach to man tracking. Tracking is a valuable and effective method of enhancing the operation and management of any SAR situation. This course is a valuable tool to help each SAR responder become aware of tracks or signs and how to utilize your SAR and tracking techniques to quickly and efficiently find someone or something. The basics of tracking are broken down into simple, clear concepts that can be utilized by any SAR or law enforcement worker.

Student Criteria:

This course is open to rescue, fire, emergency medical, and law enforcement personnel or any organization having responsibility for searching for missing or lost persons.

Special Notes:

Advance student registration is REQUIRED and must be received by OCTOBER 1, 2015 in order to participate in this course. MAXIMUM # of student seats available is thirty (30). You are considered accepted as a student in this class upon receipt of your application by this office so you will not receive a letter acknowledging that acceptance.

Meals, lodging, and travel arrangements/expenses are the responsibility of the student and will NOT be reimbursed by KYEM unless otherwise noted.

Registration:

Registration application for the course can be completed using the attached student registration form or via the KYEM website: <http://kyem.ky.gov/training>. Students will be notified if the course is cancelled. For this reason, it is imperative that you provide accurate contact information.
